Fiber Art Workshop Registration

Perrysburg Area Arts Council reserves the right to cancel a class due to low registration (100% of the class fee will be refunded). Note: Refunds will not be issued to registered students who cancel after June 8th.

Nuno Felting June 26th, 9am-5pm & June 27th, 9am-4pm	Learn the ancient form of traditional wet felting with a modern twist. You will make a one of a kind scarf using merino wool and lightweight silk fabric. Every student should go home with a finished project. Instructor: Annie Lawrence. Fee: $115
Coiled Fiber Jewelry June 26th, 9am-4pm	Learn to create unique and beautiful jewelry with the ancient technique of coiling.. During this one day workshop, students will learn the history of coiling, appropriate materials to select for jewelry making, and techniques for designing, creating and finishing a piece. A brooch will be completed during the class, with time to begin a second piece. Instructor: Sharon Hammer Baker. Fee: $60
Screenprinting Techniques on Fabric June 26th, 10am-4pm	Learn a variety of surface design techniques involving non-traditional ways to "screen" images onto fabric. This class will cover deconstructed screen-printing (using screens textured with thickened dyes) as well as other methods of creating screens: from digital images, fabric interfacing, scratch art screens and more. Instructor: Jennifer Solon. Fee: $75
Card Weaving June 27th, 1pm-4pm	Try your hand at an ancient form of weaving on portable cards with four holes using cotton or wool. Weave a warp-faced narrow band like the early Egyptians or Scandanavians. Watch a demo, study photos, books and view ideas to make accessories for wallhangings or clothing. Instructor: Susan Cayton. Fee: $35
