New This Month

A New Year Brings New Cultural Arts Partners!

The PAAC is very pleased to welcome Perrysburg Commons/HCR Manorcare as a new sponsor this year. Their generous funding will provide the live musical performances at our annual Fiber Art Show at The 577 Foundation on June 4th & 5th!

We are also happy to announce our new partnership with Capabilities Inc. of Toledo. Thanks to the efforts of Capabilities Inc., we will be welcoming a new assistant into the PAAC office. Capabilities provides placement and job coaching to people with disabilities. We at PAAC are proud to join them in their mission to "assist people with disabilities obtain their optimum occupational goals".

PAAC Operates the 577 Book Center

The Once-Read Book Center at The 577 Foundation will be operated by PAAC for the first 3 months of 2011. Proceeds from the sale of books will help to support the programs of PAAC and Read For Literacy, an organization that helps hundreds of people learn to read. Donations are greatly appreciated, so come to the book center, drop off your gently used books and magazines, and buy a few new-to-you books to take home and enjoy!

Sponsor Spotlight:

Perrysburg Commons Retirement Center

All the Joys of Home with None of the Work

Perrysburg Commons is an independent living retirement center with a home-like feel and caring, friendly staff. They offer a variety of unfurnished apartment styles to meet your needs. The center even offers furnished respite stay apartments for caregivers who need a break from caring for their loved ones or for individuals needing to discharge from a skilled nursing facility or hospital who are not well enough to function independently at home yet. ### Call for Fiber Artists - deadline for entry: April 1

Show your work in PAAC's 4th annual exhibit of Fiber Art. This wonderful 2 day event will be held on the grounds of The 577 Foundation, June 4th & 5th and will feature many forms of Fiber Art, as well as demonstrations by spinners and weavers, animal exhibits, live music and children's art activities.

For more information on how to enter your artwork, visit our website at: <http://www.perrysburgarts.org/fiberartentry.html>

PAAC Cultural Arts Partnership Awards- Postponed

PAAC will be hosting a reception to honor its top contributors for 2010. These honors will be awarded to our most generous sponsors, and our most devoted volunteers. While we are grateful to all of our members, supporters and volunteers, we would like to take this opportunity to show our gratitude to those who have given so much to PAAC this year. The ceremony will be held in early Spring. Watch our website for more information.

Call for Musicians - PAAC Summer Concert Series, 2011

Bands interested in performing in our summer concerts series should email samples of their music, a description of their work, and a listing of recent and upcoming concert venues, to:
